Worksheet 10.3
The Argentine Surrender

Please view this BBC report on the final Argentine surrender on the Falklands, which includes coverage of events on the islands and at home in Britain and Argentina.

1. How does this report present the differences between the victors and the defeated? What reasons does it put forward for the final British victory?

2. What are the risks any nation incurs when it goes to war? Think not only about victory or defeat, but economic, social and political consequences as well.
