Worksheet 4.1

The Paris Peace Conference

Read the welcoming address by Raymond Poincaré and the opening address by Woodrow Wilson at the beginning of the Paris Peace Conference.

• Looking carefully at the language used, plus the content of each speech, what are the differences and similarities between the positions of France and the United States, at the beginning of the Peace Conference?

Read about the results of the Peace Conference in your textbook, and assess the extent to which the final outcomes matched the speeches at the beginning of the Conference.